

A Royal Banquet

Neill A. Burgess & Howard J. Prior

1. He knew love and joy and tears He felt com - pas -
 2. Ful - ly God and ful - ly man Our Lord, e - ter -

- sion, pain and fear And he longs to hold us in the
 - nal great "I am" And we, un - des - erv - ing, know the shad - ow of his wings. For he knows our weak - ness - es ful - ness that he brings. Mer - cy for hum - an - i - ty

And he - wants us to be the guests: A roy - al
 A - bun - dance for our pov - er - ty A roy - al ban - quet with the King of Kings A roy - al ban - quet with the King of ban - quet with the King of Kings A roy - al ban - quet with the King of

Kings. Ladies Who shall we say he is? Men In the be - Kings.

G/B F#m/A G G/A A D A/C# Bsus4 B

gin-ning was the Word Ladies Who shall we say he is? Men And the Word be-came flesh

Em D/F# G D/F# G G/A A

Together
And the Word lived a - mong us And we have seen his glo - ry.

Em D/F# G A D G A G

3. And we know we're in his care Un - til

D G A Em Bm

the glor - ious day we share A roy - al ban-quet with the

D/A A D/A A Em Bm G D/F# G A

King of Kings A roy - al ban-quet with the King of Kings

Em Bm D/A A D/A A Em Bm

A roy - al ban-quet with the King of Kings A roy - al ban - quet

G D/F# G A D

with the King of Kings.