God of Abraham

Words: Neill A. Burgess
Music: ‘Windermere Swan’ adapted by Neill A. Burgess from ‘Swan Theme’ by Pyotr Ilyich Tchaikovsky (1840-1893)

(VERSE 1)
God of Abraham, the father of our faith,
We offer you our praise.
For you declare that we are right with you if we believe
And follow in your ways.
So, lead us, Lord, we will walk with you
Though we may not know
Where the path may take us to.
With Christ beside us in every test
We will live for you
So that all on earth
Will be blessed, be blessed.

(VERSE 2)
God of Moses on the mountain in the cloud,
The thunder and the flame,
Redeeming slaves, creating Israel to show and tell
The glory of your name.
And now, your banner of grace unfurls,
As you build your church
To proclaim in all the world,
The sacrifice and the precious blood
Of the cross of Christ
As the saving price
Of your love, your love.

(VERSE 3)
God of David, the anointed shepherd-king,
We worship you alone.
For as you promised, now a Son of David reigns on high
On his eternal throne.
The risen Christ conquered death and sin,
We are born again,
As the Spirit dwells within.
With thankful hearts let us join our voice
With the angel choir
As we praise your name
And rejoice, rejoice,
Rejoice!
