I Will Sing In The Shadow Of Your Wings
(Psalm 63)

Words and music: Neill A. Burgess & Howard J. Prior

(VERSE 1)
I will sing in the shadow of your wings,
In the loving protection that it brings.
How your love satisfies,
It is better than this life,
I will sing in the shadow of your wings.

(VERSE 2)
I will praise you and I will lift my hands,
When I walk through a dry and dusty land.
While I'm thirsting for you,
I'll rejoice in all you do,
I will praise you and I will lift my hands.

(CHORUS)
You, O God, are my God,
My heart reaches for you.
You O God, are my God,
How I yearn for you.

(VERSE 3)
I will cling to the One who holds me tight,
In the darkest and loneliest of nights.
With your sword over me,
I will fear no enemy,
I will cling to the One who holds me tight.

(REPEAT CHORUS)
